WOLFGANG HOFFMANN-RIEM

Keynote: Legal Tech— Opportunities & Risks

July 9, 2018 · 1:00 PM · Moot Court

This session gives suggestions on how digitalization can be exploited without jeopardizing fundamental freedoms and the realization of other interests in the common good.

CATRINA DENVIR

Data Driven Legal Decision-Making

July 11, 2018 · 5:00 PM · Moot Court

In this session we will explore the application of data analytics to legal decision making in the public and private sector, and—drawing on a number of case studies—we will consider the implications of the inevitable “data-driven future of law.”

MIREILLE HILDEBRANDT

Speaking Law to Statistics

July 17, 2018 · 4:30 PM · Moot Court

This session will address some of the intricacies of artificial legal intelligence or data-driven law, focusing especially on how uses of artificial legal intelligence fare with central tenets of the Rule of Law, notably the notion of due process.

CORINNA COUPETTE

Legal Network Science

July 18, 2018 · 5:30 PM · Moot Court

Legal network science studies how legal phenomena can be represented as networks and investigates what we can gain from their quantification and visualization. This session introduces the network perspective on law and teaches basics of legal network science, with a focus on its potential to improve legal practice.

JONATHAN HOAK

Legal Ops: A GC Perspective

July 24, 2018 · 2:00 PM · Moot Court

Having served for more than 20 years as a GC for various global companies (e.g. Flextronics, NCR), Jon will share his experiences of participating in the growth and development of the Legal Operations function in law firms and legal departments.

MARKUS HARTUNG

Market for Legal Services

July 25, 2018 · 6:00 PM · Moot Court

“Legal Tech” is a complex phenomenon and sometimes just a simple term summarizing all the changes occurring at the moment. In his lecture, Mr. Hartung analyzes the impact of the digital transformation and technology on law firms and in-house legal departments.
